To strengthen the resilience and hope of our diverse community members by improving their health and well-being.

On behalf of AACI’s staff, leadership, and board of directors, thank you for your ongoing generosity as we work to improve the health and wellness of our diverse communities. Our recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic has continued to highlight the many health inequities that have impacted families across Santa Clara County. But in the face of these large challenges, AACI has been hard at work to strengthen the resilience of our diverse communities.

In the last year, AACI has helped community-based organizations better support those they serve by providing trainings to their community health workers on chronic disease prevention and resource linkage. We have also been gearing up to implement the state’s expansion of Medi-Cal to everyone over the age of 50. And we’ve opened a new dental clinic that specifically addresses the needs of low-income families who would otherwise not be able to afford dental care.

The pandemic is not over and the need for health care, mental health, and dental services continues to be high. But as always, AACI is here, and we stand ready to respond to our region’s changing needs. Thank you again for your tireless support and we look forward to continuing our work to make Santa Clara County a healthier place to live, work, and play.

WHO WE SERVE

All are welcome at AACI. AACI serves all members of our diverse community, focusing on those who are marginalized and vulnerable, and who face barriers to accessing health and wellness services.

AACI clients span all ages. Most come from low or very low-income backgrounds, and many experience trauma, mental illness, chronic disease, isolation, or other obstacles to health and well-being. AACI’s culturally sensitive health and wellness services are accessible to all in need, without regard to their immigration status or their ability to pay. A sliding scale for fees are available and based on income.

"I feel like I have a family at AACI... I really felt welcomed when the staff remembered my name and asked me how I was doing."
- AACI Client

21,232 community members served & reached in 2022

The majority of AACI clients are low-income individuals and families living in Santa Clara County.
