

My Home

Flip! Flip! That is the sound of Mommy cooking in the morning. I am 6 years old. I live in Dublin with my mom, my older sister, and my dad. I am Asian American.

Welcome to my house! There are many things to see, hear, and smell in my house.

We celebrated Lunar New Year and Valentine's Day. One of the things I see at home are red lanterns hanging on my flower plant for good luck. Another thing I see is red Valentine's Day cards from my friends at school. I feel happy because I am getting good luck.

Flap! Aaah! Meow! I hear Daddy and my older sister playing a video game called Ni No Kuni. I like playing Ni No Kuni with my family. I also hear myself playing piano music. I am practicing a song called Lil Liza Jane. I do not like practicing, but I feel happy when I do a good job.

Num! Num! Crunch! That is the sound of me eating yummy food. I smell green onion pancake for breakfast. I smell peanut butter jelly sandwich for lunch. I smell shrimp fried rice for dinner. My tummy and I feel happy.

This house is a home because my family lives here. I feel happy, full, loved, and safe. I also want other people to feel the same thing as happy, full, loved, and safe. Now you know about my home.
